Tributes

It's never easy to say goodbye to someone who has been a part of our lives.

When that person is gone, there's a hole where he or she used to be in your life. That's what many of us are feeling today about our son/brother/cousin/grandson & friend Gaudentius Basil. Some of you knew Gaudentius/Basil Karoki aka "Gaddi" better than others, but you're here because he had an impact on your life, and you want to honor that. And because he did affect you in some way, it's not going to be easy to say goodbye.

At such a difficult time, it's important to remember the good memories we all have of Gaddi. By holding on to those memories, we can focus on the good times we had together, and help each other find comfort at this difficult time.

Most of you recall the bright, optimistic angel-like smile that he always had on & more importantly his infectious laughter. All interactions with Gaddi left a smile on your face because even when in pain, he tried his best to put on a brave and cheerful face; that was his personality. Gaddi was a fighter. He kept pushing, remained positive about life, and always cared for others; his sickness notwithstanding.

Just to give you a better perspective of his optimism and empathy, he always remembered to check on his cousins and even texted them a "happy new year" message for the new year. Whenever inquired on his wellness, he would always say that he is persevering, and hoping to recover well soon.

If we keep these sweet memories in our hearts and minds, we can find comfort, and Gaddi will always be with us.

Just by being here, you're showing that Gaddi had an impact on you. It is immensely comforting to us to know that he touched other people's lives in the same way he touched ours. And that's how we'll always remember Gaddie/Basil.

BWANA U SEHEMU YANGU

Bwana u sehemu yangu
Rafiki yangu wewe
Katika safari yangu
Tatembea na wewe.

Pamoja na wewe,
Pamoja na wewe,
Katika safari yangu
Tatembea na wewe.

Mali hapa sikutaka
Ili niheshimiwe,
Na yanikute mashaka
Sawawa na Wewe

Niongoze safarini,
Mbele Unichukue,
Mlangoni mwa Mbinguni
Niingie na Wewe.

IT IS WELL WITH MY SOUL

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, thou hast taught me to say,
It is well, it is well with my soul.

It is well(It is well) with my soul (with my soul),
It is well; it is well with my soul.

My sin, oh, the joy of this glorious thought,
My sin not in part but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more,
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

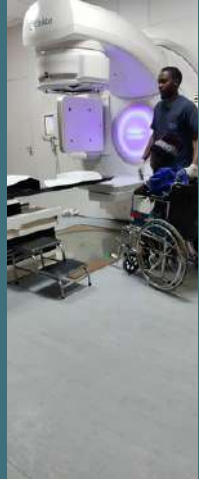

And, Lord, haste the day when my faith shall be sight,
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll;
The trump hall resound, and the Lord shall descend,
Even so, it is well with my soul
